

R&R Center for the Performing Arts

Team Selection

Teams are based on ability and age. We place students together in groups that we feel will work the best together in rehearsal and performance as well as have the same abilities and overall cohesive look. Our competition teams are the face of the studio.

Teams are selected by Robbin and R&R dance instructors.

Class Registration and Auto-Payment

Dance Studio Pro

R&R uses a software system called Dance Studio Pro (DSP). This system will enable you to:

- Register for classes online
- Set up auto-payments (via checking account withdrawals or credit card)
- Have a private parent portal where you can view important information such as classes, schedules, and payments.

Auto-Payment

Dancers must have an active DSP account with a current credit/debit card on file. This card will automatically be charged on the 1st of the month (class tuition/ private fees) and the 15th of the month (comp fees). If your payment hasn't gone through successfully as scheduled all activities will be suspended until payment is received in full. NO EXCEPTIONS. If you wish to pay another way (by check or in lump sum), you must remit payment to the front office before the 1st and/or 15th of the month or your card will be automatically charged.

ONLY monthly auto payments will be exempt from the credit/debit card service fee.
All other credit card charges will receive a service fee.

Attendance & Communication

Competition Team

The R&R Competition Team is a privilege which requires dedication and consistency. As such, 90% attendance is required. We understand that 100% is not feasible however, to provide the highest quality training, consistency is key. Excused absences include; Appointments with a doctor's note, timely notification of a family emergency, required school activities, or advance notice of obligations requiring absence (Example: wedding). Jobs, school sports team practices or games will NOT be counted as excused absences.

R&R will communicate through email & text message. Please make sure that all important parties have an updated email address and phone number that can receive text messages in DSP. We encourage older students to also have these on file as well if they manage their own schedule.

THANK YOU for not calling or texting cell phones FOR ANY REASON!! R&R Staff will not respond to any texts or calls from a student or parent made directly to them in order to ensure consistency in our communication and professionalism. All information can be communicated through email at nrdancepuebloco@gmail.com
