Rules & Policies

Uniforms: All costumes and uniforms must be pre-paid by deadline given or your child's will not be ordered, no exceptions. Costumes will be used for one full year and is your responsibility to keep them neat and clean throughout the year and all pieces and parts together.

Class attire: All students must be in dance wear, stretch pants, sweatpants, dance shorts, or leotard. All students must wear dance shoes. All hair must be tied back securely. Absolutely no jeans.

Ballet attire: All students must be in black leotard, pink tights and ballet shoes. Hair must be pulled back in a bun. Dancers who do not follow the correct dress will not be allowed to participate in class. No refunds will be given.

Valuables: Valuable items should not be brought into the studio; we will not be responsible for lost or stolen items.

Visitors: Parents and visitors must sit quietly in the designated area. Please do not talk to or coach your child, this distracts the students while they are in class. Siblings or other children visiting must be kept quiet and under control or you will be asked to leave.

No tolerance: We will not tolerate parental conflict. Our job is to teach your child to dance not to referee. If there are any confrontations in class or studio function or any defamation of studio, student, or parent of R&R center for the performing arts via Facebook, twitter, Instagram or any other social media site otherwise it will result in immediate dismissal. This also applies to dancers.

Injuries: As with all sports there is a possibility of injury, R&R Center for the Performing Arts will not be responsible for any injuries.

Pictures & videos: We reserve the right to take and use pictures and videos for the use of, and in, any dance related event.

Solos: Solos are on a first come first serve basis anyone wanting a solo please let us know immediately. If there are no more time slots open, you will be placed on a waiting list for the next available space.
